How Thanksgiving Day Will Be Observed in Clarksville.

In the Religious Role The Young Men's Christian Association Offer An Attracted Card-Order Announcements.

To-morrow is Thanksgiving day, a national holiday, and the people of Clarksville will observe it as usual by half way suspending business. As a rule what business is necessary will be transacted in the forenoon, and the evening will be given over to rest: From the signs of the time about the groceries this morning everybody is going to eat turkey for dinner, and all will need a rest in the afternoon. Many people, however, will spend the day in the country hunting or fishing, and will do their eating Friday, if they are lucky enough to capture anything to-morrow. Let everybody observe the day as he chooses, but remember that the people of the country have much to be thankful for, and don't forget that there are many little ones in the city who would relish something good for dinner.

The announcements for religious services will be found below:

A SMALL BLAZE.

A Negro Cabin Burned on College Street Last Night.

The fire alarm sounded last night called the department to a negro cabin on College street owned by Miss Laura Cooke. The fire started in a closet and it is supposed to have caught from a lamp. A child went into the closet with a lamp to get some coal and shortly thereafter the house was discovered to be on fire. The building was frame and burned very rapidly. The children were the only persons on the place when the fire was discovered and they were too much alarmed to let the fact be known in any other way except by crying. Thus the fire got a good start before the bells were rung. A crowd of people attracted by the light soon assembled and saved the greater part of the house furniture. By the time the fire company arrived the building was enveloped in flames from top to bottom. The fire was, however, extinguished in time to save a little lumber, but it will all be damaged. There was an insurance policy on the building for $500.

PARSON DIXON TALKS.

He Says Cleveland's Triumph Was a Defeat For Tammany.

Before his regular sermon Sunday Rev. Thos. Dixon, a noted New York divine, reviewed the results of the presidential election. Among other things he said:

"The man who thinks Cleveland's election is a partisan triumph is easily consoled. He was nominated without the aid of his party in New York. He was elected without the aid of his party in New York. He has transferred the national contest from the sewers of New York to the broad fields of the nation. For this national deliverance we may all devoutly thank God, Tammany Hall has triumphed again in the city, but the role of Tammany in the nation will from this day grow beautifully less. New York is no longer the pivotal State of the Union, and on this the Union is to be congratulated. It was an avalanche, entirely too much of a good thing for the future of Tammany Hall, and for this promise we sing 'Glory to God.'"

HE'S RULED.

The Chronic Office-Seeker Has Gone a Little Too Far,

And President-Elect Cleveland Has His Dander Up.

He Says Applications Will Not Be Tolerated.

They Will Not Be Considered Prior to the Inauguration—Unless Relieved from the Unnecessary Demands Upon His Time He Threatens to Shut Up His House in New York and Seek Some Quiet Place to Spend the Winter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—President-elect Cleveland left town Tuesday, in search of a much needed rest. A representative of the United Press called upon Mr. Cleveland Tuesday morning, in speaking of the absolute necessity of relief from the annoyances and exactness which are his daily lot at home, he said:

"Many of the callers whom I have obliged to receive, would not, I think, have encroached upon my time had they given the matter a moment's reflection. Those who have called upon me to talk about offices, it seems to me, have been a little inconsiderate, and certainly premature. I desire to give as much publicity as possible to the statement that I do not propose to consider applications for office prior to my inauguration, and I shall avoid all interviews on the subject. Those who under any pretense gain an opportunity to present their applications orally, and those who burden me at this time with written applications, can not possibly do anything which would so interfere with their chances of success. Written applications will be so little regarded that I doubt if they ever see the files in Washington, for there is no reason or decency in my being overwhelmed with such matters at this time."

Upon being asked how long he expected to be away on his vacation, Mr. Cleveland replied:

"As to that I am not certain; it will depend upon various conditions. I expect, however, to be absent about two weeks, and when I return, unless I am somewhat relieved from the unnecessary demands upon my time to which I have been subjected here, I shall shut up my house in the city and find some more quiet place to spend the winter. Certainly between now and the 4th of March I ought to have some time to devote to other matters than receiving callers and considering subjects which should be postponed."

Ruth and Mamma at Lakewood.

LAKEWOOD, N. Y., Nov. 23.—Mrs. Cleveland and Baby Ruth arrived at Lakewood Monday, and went direct to the cottage of F. P. Freeman. During the stay of the Cleveland family at Lakewood the president-elect will spend much of his time here and will only go to New York when he has pressing engagements there.

Evangelist Hale.

Seldom have the people of Clarksville been afforded an opportunity to hear the gospel expounded with more power and simplicity than is now being done by the Rev. Fred. Hale, morning and night, at the Baptist church. To those seeking an eternal life his sermons are most helpful and instructive. Mr. Hale is studiously careful to have the meaning of his texts thoroughly understood, and is peculiarly endowed in that particular. The most unlearned man in the community would have had little difficulty with the sermon he preached last night were he an earnest inquirer after eternal life. It is given to but comparatively few men to so simplify Scripture and turn it to such profitable account in soul-winning.

Mr. Hale was attentively heard by his audience last night, and at the conclusion of his sermon several persons manifested their acceptance of Christ as their Savior. The meeting will continue from day to day, with service at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. An inquiry meeting has been appointed in the lecture room of the church this evening at 6:30, to which all feeling an interest in spiritual matters are invited.

BOTH ROASTED.

Mr. Powderly's Opinion of the Two Great Parties.

He Says the Democrats Stole Into Power,

And That by 1896 the People Will Learn It Is No Better than the Republicans and Will Turn to the People's Party, the Only One That Offers Relief—Values of the Country Thinking.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 23.—Mr. Powderly, head of the Knights of Labor, submitted to an interview as follows:

"What do you think of the labor situation in the country to-day?"

"It was never better. The recent election proved that both Harrison and Cleveland were as good, but no better, than in 1888. But the impressions that Carnegie—and I speak of him as representing a class—the real opponent of Cleveland, caused hundreds of thousands who never gave a thought to such a question, to change their votes. That act demonstrated that they are thinking. They will continue to think, and in 1896 will have found the Democratic party no better than the Republican party, and will then turn to the People's party—the only one that offers relief. It now makes a Democrat mad to call him a free trader. That party stole into power and the people will out it in 1896."

ALARM AT ST. LOUIS.

It Is Caused by the Largest Number of Typhoid Fever Cases.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 23.—There have been over 1,100 cases of typhoid fever in this city since April last. Physicians say it is a forerunner of the cholera which will surely come next year. Much alarm is felt and the health office is to be investigated.

Homestead Notes.

HOMESTEAD, Nov. 23.—The official existence of the strikers' famous advisory board was ended at a meeting held Monday night. Applications for reinstatement continued Tuesday in increased numbers. The officials seem inclined to be considerate, and it is now thought probable that a much larger proportion of the strikers will be re-employed than was thought possible.

Monetary Conference.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 23.—The proceedings of the international monetary conference which met at the Palais des Academies at 3 p. m. Tuesday were entirely formal. The following countries were represented: Austria-Hungary, Belgium, France, Germany, Great Britain, Greece, Italy, the Netherlands, Portugal, Roumania, Russia, Servia, Spain, Sweden and Norway and Switzerland.

Jewelry Store Dynamited.

SHARBY, Ark., Nov. 23.—This jewelry store of A. A. Ballard was blown up by dynamite early Monday morning, causing a loss of $25,000. The court house also suffered several thousand dollars damage, and window glass to the distance of four blocks was broken. The dwelling of J. J. Crow was destroyed by fire about the same time.

Robbed a Man in a Fit.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Nov. 23.—James Templeton, on his way home, fell in a fit. While in his prostrated state three unknown negroes went to Templeton ostensibly to render assistance. When he regained consciousness Templeton found that he had been robbed of his gold watch and chain and $170.

Banquet to Patrick Egan.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 23.—Patrick Egan, minister to Chili, was tendered a complimentary banquet at the Hotel Lincoln Monday night, by John Fitzgerald, ex-president of the Irish National League of America.

Got His Own Throat.

ASHLAND, Wis., Nov. 23.—John Johnson, a logger, well known among the lumbermen of Mason, cut his throat in a horrible manner at that place yesterday during a drunken frenzy. He was brought to this city where he died.

Quite a Contrast.

MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—A petition is in circulation here to the queen praying for a pension to veterans of 1837-38. The petition contrasts the generosity of the United States with the policy of Great Britain.

Won't Let Him Testify.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Marquis of Lansdowne has notified the commission on evicted tenants that he is not prepared to allow his agent to testify or assist in the inquiry in any other way.

The Ladies of Clarksville Tender a Public Acknowledgment to Mr. E. C. Morrow.

[The LEAF-CHRONICLE has been requested to give place to the appended testimonial as a reflex of the sentiment of the ladies of Clarksville with regard to the discontinuance by Mr. Morrow of the Arlington Salon.—Ed.]

We, the undersigned women of Clarksville, wish to express to Mr. E. C. Morrow our heart-felt gratitude for his closing the Arlington Salon. Its elegance and surroundings have always made it the most dangerous place in the city for our young men and boys, and we pledge him our prayers that he may have grace to keep it closed forever, and that God's richest blessings may descend upon him:

To these many more names might have been added had we had time to canvass the town more thoroughly, and had we not feared to make a too tardy acknowledgment. No name on this list was given grudgingly, and in many instances the ladies said they would like to sign not only once, but a hundred times, if by so doing they could better express their gratitude.

SENATORIAL RACE.

How The Fight Stands Between Bate and Taylor.

A Man Who Knows Says "Our Bob" Is Not In It—Bate Has The Right Of Way.

The United States Senatorship contest is the chief topic of interest in Tennessee politics, barring the scramble for pie. It appears that Col. Savage's boom died with the closing of the campaign and the race now settles down between Senator Bate and Ex-Gov. Taylor. Concerning the contest the Chattanooga News of Monday contained the following, which is not correct in every particular, but it shows the drift of opinion at Chattanooga. It is especially incorrect when it says that every middle Tennessee county instructed for Bate in convention, with one exception, Coffee county. Montgomery county is pledged to no man, the convention taking no action with regard to the contest. The remainder of the article, so far as the LEAF-CHRONICLE knows, may be correct. Says the News:

"There is much interest manifested in the city at present over the contest for the United States Senatorship between Senator Bate and Ex-Gov. Taylor.

"One of these two men will probably get the plum.

"Senator Bate has held the office for six years. He has done nothing particularly to distinguish himself, but has made a good Senator, in the general acceptance of the word. He is a man of great honor and was one of the bravest soldiers in the Tennessee army.

"Ex-Gov. Bob Taylor needs no introduction to the people of this section of the State. He has held the highest offices in the gift of the people of Tennessee, and they all love him.

"It is said that every member of the State executive committee is for Taylor for the Senate and are warmly prosecuting his interests.

"A prominent Democratic politician who has made a canvass of the State during the recent election, and who informed a News man that both Col. Bate and ex-Gov. Taylor were his personal friends, gave the News man the following idea of how the matter stands. He said:

"There are twenty counties in Middle and West Tennessee, and every county but Coffee has instructed for Bate. In East Tennessee there are twenty-five Republican counties, and I understand a number of these Republicans will support Bate. Taylor is my preference, but I don't believe he will secure the election."

THE FREDONIA CYCLONE.

A Mistake Made by Some of Our Special Correspondents.

Some of our special correspondents have got things mixed with regard to the "Fredonia Cyclone." The following special was sent from Clarksville to several papers:

"Fredonia, a small town in Montgomery county, in this State, was completely destroyed by a cyclone yesterday afternoon. Houses were lifted bodily from their foundations and blown blocks away. Hardly a tree was left standing. Several people were injured, but none fatally."

The storm did not strike Fredonia, Tenn., but it did demolish Fredonia, Ky. The town of Fredonia, Tenn., consists of one store house, a small one, and one tobacco factory. Sam Wilson lives near the place and the LEAF-CHRONICLE desires to correct the above publication on his account. He is too good a Democrat to be blown from the face of the earth, right on the heels of a glorious victory. Fredonia, Tenn., is all right. The mistake, however, is a natural one. Fredonia, Ky., is in Caldwell county, near Princeton.
